

PRODUCT SPOTLIGHT

Murrplastik manufactures high-tech plastic products for the industrial automation market. Their products are designed to excel in the most challenging areas of cable protection, cable marking, labeling, automation, and robotics

Murrplastik is the industry leader in the Robotic Dress Pack segment.

They're able to develop individual dress-pack designs that protect and allow all the robot lines, wires, and other content to easily move in conjunction with the robot movements.

They offer standard Dress Pack solutions for all the popular brands of traditional and collaborative robots.
